Scott Cohen, Hey, When you've got it, Flaunt it, Right?

Angela Jackson

Chris Gullet

Garland Glass, "No Dust, No Way!"

"Lookin' Mar-ve-lous"

Billy Crystal said. At Bird, Garland Glass takes charge of making the quote come true. Students do too!

Jamie Ginn, "You Look Marvelous, Darling".

BOOoo!

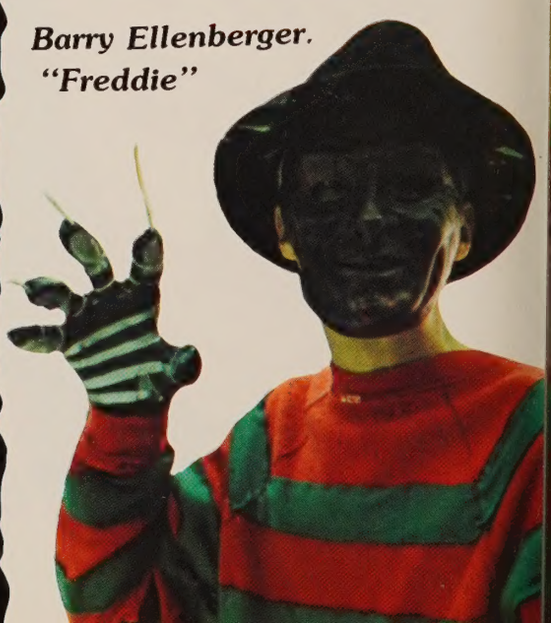
It's Halloween. Goblins, ghouls and ghosts greet on the way to classes. Fresh from Elm Street, a new student, Freddy Krooger has an irritating laugh and nasty knife fingers which he grates every chance he gets. Monsters, the Hunchback of Notre Dame, and blood thirsty creatures from the night make lunch the last thing on the mind. But, don't get out that crucifix, teddy bear or string of garlic. Pleasant witches, rock stars, pretty ladies, dashing heros and friendly vagabonds will fend off the evil ones.

Sherry Puryear may start a new make-up fad.

Ricky Swinson, you can't fool us.

Susan Hayes, you're a lovely witch.

Quyen Ngo, are you there?



Barry Ellenberger. "Freddie"

Gas Leak

Fact:

November 21, 1986 at 10:27 a.m. the fire alarm sounded. No problem. It was just the required drill. Right? Wrong. Big Trouble. Fire trucks and police cars rolled into the campus. Students and staff had no idea what had happened.

Rumors:

"Is there a fire?"
"It's freezing, can I go to my car?"
"This is scary!"
"I left my jacket, purse . . . everything in there."
"I have to go the bathroom."
"Does anyone have a camera?"
"I don't believe this, what's happening?" "You heard what?"
"We get out early? . . ."
"Oh, no the yearbook room is back there!"

The Scoop:

Ground moving equipment being used in the new construction accidentally struck a gas line which was buried under trash and unmarked. Luckily, no workmen, students or staff were injured and the rumors of early dismissal were ruined by reality as students returned to fourth period and other afternoon class. What a day!

KABOOM! ... Psyche!

"It was kind of scary and it was a big mess. We had a ball!" Melanie Minor.

"Luckily, no one was hurt. I'm sorta glad it happened. I needed a break." Gerry Johnson.

"Why can't they just forget it and send us home?" . . . Michael Heywood.

Special thanks to Julian Porter (top right.) from TALON. He risked his life to get the camera. If it were not for his bravery, these pages would not have been possible. (Or, were you cold, JP?)

"I'm lucky to have Julie here to help." Kim Johnson.

"Donnie, Rob, Rick Marino, "We call ourselves the Three Musketeers."

"Robin is a big help" says Dana Layne.

"I'll miss you, Ronnie. Next year, I have to take the bus." Kim Faulkner.

"I love my sis." Heather and Rosalind Brand.

"He's such a flirt . . . She's such a flirt." Richard and Renee Campbell.

"No, We DO NOT look alike!" Jeff and Steve Adams.

Sisters & Brothers

"Thank God this is the last year I have to put up with her . . . him . . ." Mike and Colleen Kiefer.

"Sometimes I wish she'd be quiet", Dawn and Paul Duquette.

"Don't embarrass me, Chris" I still love you." Gina Beachman.

"Judi is always there for me". Debbie Malcolmson.

"So, what if Sam's taller. Wait a few more years". Fred Tamty.

"You guessed, Our favorite color is RED!" Holly and Janine Price.

Tonia Hill, Demetrius Vannoy, Tracy Mayfield, Diane Hall.

"That's What Friends Are For"

Hit song for 1986 by Dionne Warwick expresses Skyhawk feelings about friends. They are there to share special secrets, to help with serious problems and to rejoice over those successes.

Linda Wood says "Friends are the most important thing to me."

"I really do not know how I could have made it through high school without my best friend." adds Lisa Bierowski and Melinda Abate.

Don't lose touch. Keep my number! Call me! I'm glad you're here. After the caps and gowns are put away, friends and memories will stay.

Say it Your Way

Statistics in the Book

Lonely one
With tears in her eyes
The smile on her face
Was only a disguise
All she ever wanted
All she would ever need
Was some one to love her
Someone to see
She finally found that love
When she needed him he was there
But the one time she needed him most
She could not find him anywhere
When she finally found him
Oh, there was so much harm
For she looked upon his soul and self
Embraced in another's arms
She ran away to hide
From her shame and grief
Someone had stolen her lover's heart
Just like a common thief
A crystal shining tear
Fell across her face
Like the countless others
From her self disgrace
No one was there to save her
From her final quest
She had witnessed her lover
Taking in a guest
She went into her closet
And found her final gift
She loaded it with ease
And then began to lift
With this one last motion
She brought it to her mind
He would never have to worry
About her again in time
Oh, so ever slowly
As she fell onto her knees
And was her last request
"God forgive me please"
The slenderest finger
Pulled the trigger hard and cold
Now she's gone forever
And so her story's told.

We are the future
At least that's what I hear
But they're teaching us a world
Of hatred and fear
I don't want to be
A statistic in a book
Because to make it in there
I'd have to steal my life like a crook
Well her story's over
Many others too
They're statistics in the book
Because their life is through
If suicide seems your answer
There's no reason to stay
Remember what I've said to you
And please don't go away.

Clubs Tackle Different Goals

Night hikes in White Oaks Canyon, mountain climbs to study the vegetation, science museum outings occupied members of the Science Club this active year. And the car wash was a bright way to bring in funds to finance the fun.

Students Against Drunk Driving joined together under the sponsorship of Norwood Powell to form a new chapter of SADD. Students and parents signed contracts to assure each that they would not drive drunk. With alcohol involved in forty-five percent of fatal accidents, this club has quite a job.

Service Clubs, Bird Aid and Key Club keep the school clean in addition to collecting food for the poor and filling the blood bank for emergencies.

Look Behind Those Initials

'Ouch!' This is not as easy as Future Homemakers of America make it appear. FHA members sharpen those sewing skills by attaching those Bird emblems to all the jackets and vests used by ushers and other personnel. Hungry? need a snack?, these club members prepare all those delicious goodies for faculty banquets and club parties.

SCA members attend leadership conferences and then plan the fun for Skyhawks. Dances after games, homecoming, Miss America contests and the beauty pageant are sponsored by this hard-working group.

Future Business Leaders of America find their home in competition and displaying their business skills. Often part of the early dismissal program, members still have time to participate in homecoming and school activities.

DECA is the word for fashion news. Thanks to Jeff Langford's group, Skyhawks get the latest word in fall, spring and prom styles.

In, Out Of The Spotlight

What's a rebuttal? Members of the Debate team find that out when they take on other schools to attempt to win their position in front of a group of impartial judges. Debate team members placed in four meets this season.

Forensics Team members write and present speeches, tell children's stories, recite poetry or speak on any topic with no preparation. Kyle Woodcock took first place in the Longwood College Voice of Democracy Competition. Julie Dunham placed second in story telling.

Glitter, fringe and motion are only part of the talented group, Rhapsody. Ready to perform at pep rally or game, members smile and dance their way to appreciation with original moves and dazzling smiles.

And who knows about Steve Smith's parking crew? Without their lights and guidance, games and activities would be far more dangerous.

Don't You Just LOVE It!

It is hard to believe that this is my third year writing "a letter from the editor." I would begin to tell you how hard the staff worked on this year's book but from the look of it there is no need for explanation. This year the Talon experimented with different style layouts and different colors. An updated more exciting style, the Talon is moving more toward a magazine style with cut-out images and crooked pictures adding more class and pizzaz. Our Talon staff has worked hard to create another great yearbook. With this yearbook we can all look back and relive all the memories of our high school days. But the yearbook is not all work, — fun and play are included in the agenda. The Talon staff cuts out early on Fridays and heads to Pizza Hut to celebrate a deadline or to just take a staff break.

It is time for me to say goodbye to Bird and the Talon staff. I have loved working with the staff and felt it has taught me responsibility and organization. Each members means a great deal to me. Thanks, Mrs. Bitner for being such a dedicated sponsor and working so hard to make Talon a great success. This yearbook holds many memories for all Skyhawks. As I look at this book I will remember all the wonderful memories that were created in room 209. Enjoy the color!! Don't you just love it!

All Study . . . Psyche!

Latin Club gives Latin students the chance to socialize with each other and to realize that it is great — not weird — to enjoy language study. Competition is another strong draw to this club. At state and national conventions Bird students enjoy the chance to compete with peers throughout the country. In Norfolk, the state cite this year, club members participated in academic, oratory and costume contests as well as class project competition. Members brought home over fifty awards. President, Lorrie Andrew; Vice-President, Jack Goodpasture; Secretary, Denise Biggs; Treasurer, Ray Cash; and Head of Publicity, Jenny Holdorff; planned the fund raiser, candy sales, in order to help defray convention expenses.

Club members went dramatic with The Menaechmi by Plautus. This English comedy was open to the entire county. Members designed and made a colorful banner which has the 'Alma Mater' imprinted. The banner now adorns the gym. All activities have as a goal, the promotion of the study of the language.

A Glimpse at Foreign Affairs

On the world scene, French, German and Spanish Club members have an active schedule. Visits to local restaurants along with picnics, skating parties, Christmas parties and visits from exchange students may be just part of the calendar. Fund raising serves an important purpose for these clubs. The money earned goes into the sponsorship of their respective honor societies to recognize outstanding language achievement.

Foreign Language Week takes work in the planning but pays off in fun for all. Dress up in togas or sport the buttons of languages studied on dress up days. Language sweat shirts add to the spirit. Class and club members gather on the volleyball courts for hot competition with each language giving its best shot. Open to the entire school, the trivia contest paid off in big bucks for paying attention and for knowing those languages.

Homecoming' '87 was one for the languages. French Club's 'Le Cage Aux Folle' took first place, with Spanish Club's 'The Impossible Dream' in second.

Rebuilding Season? ? ? 8 - 3

"With just 10 seniors on the team. I think 8-3 is a great season," boasted Sam Tarry. This year the new AAA season introduced the Skyhawks to new opponents George Wythe, Hugenot and Dinwiddie. However, it wasn't these new opponents that offered them the most difficulty, it was old rivals Meadowbrook, Midlothian and Clover Hill.

The Skyhawks went on to play in the first round of the Central regional Play-Offs. Victory wasn't meant to be, the team suffered a heart-breaking defeat to Clover Hill in the final seconds of the game on a controversial call leading to a field goal.

Eric Carroll, Latzi Balint, and Robbie Mann received Regional and District Honors. Doug Mayo, Sam Tarry, Brett Mietus and Kevin Hurst were also awarded District Honors.

Determination Captures Crown

"For such a young team with little experience, I think we did a terrific job," comments Audrey Chaney.

The team began their first AAA season with only two returning players and an unmeasurable determination to win. The excitement and stamina coupled with hard work helped the team to capture the Dominion District Crown. They finished the season with a 17-7 record.

Leslie Brown was selected for First Team All District and First Team Regional.

Audrey Chaney and Heather Brand were chosen to the District Second Team. Heather Brand was also named to the All Academic District and Regional.

Another Winning Season 9-8

The J.V. Basketball Team entered this season with only two players returning. They started off the season with great upsets against Huguenot, and George Wythe. The Skyhawks won their next four games. The next five games were the fearsome five for the Skyhawks. The team went into a shooting slump. After their last six games the team came out with a winning season of 9-8. "The team had an up and down year. We did a decent and pretty good job and could not have gone as far as we did if we didn't have Coach, Andrew Lewis," said Mike Davis.

They Tumbled Into Fourth

"Working with a high school team is very different from middle school!," said the new gymnastics coach, Sharon King.

But high school gymnasts usually have the basics down and are working on new techniques. It was hard to do anything this year because of Snow. Three meets were cancelled. In spite of problems, Skyhawks went to District where they placed fourth. Tina Lamb went to the Regional and State meets. "Despite our pre-practice condition, the team did great," commented junior, Tina Lamb and senior, Stephanie Peat. Page 140: Shari Bruton on floor. Below: Donna Young on balance beam. Ending the season with a 7-10 record, standouts Eric Flick and Gene Dubay made second team district, Honorable Mentions were awarded to Chris Hawkins and Chris Walker.

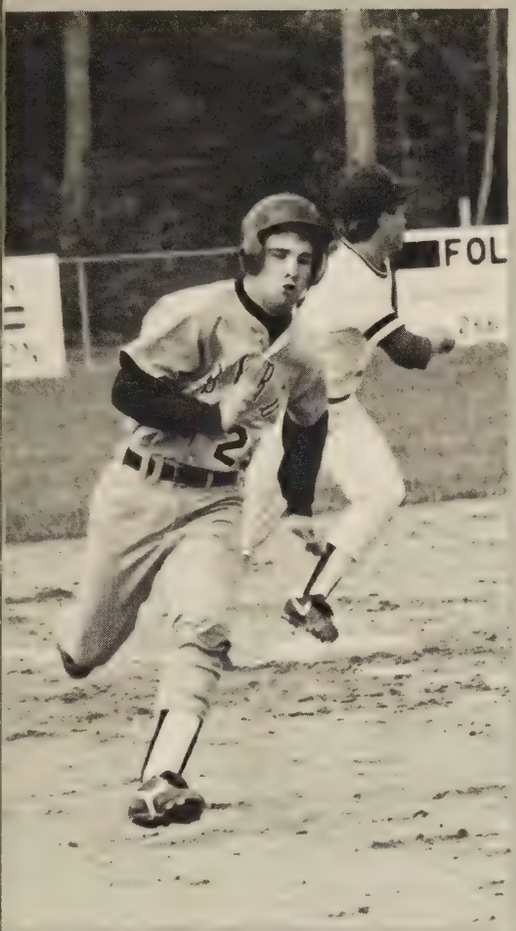
J.V. Strikes Short Of Awesome



"I'm certain that if we had played as a team the first half of the season, we would have been awesome," said coach Ken Scharfenberg when asked about the junior varsity season.

Leading the team in pitching the most wins, Johnny Bodenhamer also took top batting honors with a .500 average. Close behind in stats both T.R. Stone and Colin Moore posted .400 at bat. Team Slides Into Fourth Slot

"Hard work, good attitudes have paid off. The girls have had terrific enthusiasm and team spirit," commented Coach Stables. "We worked as a team."

This year's team was loaded with young aggressive talent, with three seniors, and only two four year varsity starters, Mitzy Hairfield and Chris DiSciullo; six juniors, three sophomores, and only one freshman.

Through much of the season, the race for the top was deadlocked between Bird, Thomas Dale, Monacan, and Meadowbrook. The Lady Skyhawks finished the season with a record of 10-6, to place fourth in the district. The highest averages at the end of the season included; Mitzy Hairfield, with a .469 batting average, Mary Beth Henshaw, with 20 stolen bases, Jody Chamberlain, with 7 RBI's, and Chris DiSciullo, with two homeruns.

"The season was great, we played our best and that's what counts," said Jeff Fagan of the soccer team's season. Seniors, goalie, Larry Bosworth and forward, Gary Fagan provided the leadership which pulled the team to a 4-3 record. Tough wins over rival Thomas Dale 1-0, and Meadowbrook 2-1, psyched team members to keep the momentum going. The toughest game to lose was the last second 1-2 decision to Manchester after the game had been deadlocked 1-1 through the second half of play. Skyhawks tied CloverHill for the district game. Winds, rain, and severe thunderstorm watch was the backdrop for the playoff tournament. CloverHill won 4-0 knocking Bird out of the district competition. Junior, Carl Wright, the most experienced player was chosen for All-District honors and won a spot on the All American Team, which will tour Europe this summer.

"Don't I make a great vampire?" David Gartrell.

More Than ABC's

"Is that teacher, Lynda Gillespie, in scuba gear?" You mean teachers don't sit at home all day and grade papers?"

Teachers have hobbies and outside interests too! Steve Cormier is spotted withn his wife, Faye and son, Michael talking to the Skyhawk at a football game. Also there, G.R. Schrotenboer and Bird buddy, Bill Sinclair share the excitement of the sideline. Brad Peebles and wife, Kathy take Erin and Becky out to pizza with Science club members. Too young to stay up past ten, Baby Gabay, Barry and Downy decide to stay at home. Top page 161: Anne, Mary, Graham and Beth Daniels keep Georgia Daniels busy. What a great looking group! Angela Sette, Ron and Denyelle Paquette manage the football team. Margaret Hicks with Ben and Sara share an ice cream cone. Good luck with the mess. Bitner family portrait time, Lance, Devin, Judi and Larry make the perfect picture? Who is caught on the slopes, Diane Martin. See, teachers do believe there is more to life than just A, B, C's.

Here's Lookin' at You.

Not being corny, Talon photographers set out to catch Skyhawks at work and at play. Renee McLendon looks pretty in pink. Ben Beach, "Gotcha!" Dennis, "Rock Star" Cimo what do you say? And what is Maria Lester looking up from? Exams? John Brooks peeks up from a test, too! On break, Beth Altorfer? Are you shy, Stuart Engelking? Well, that's a nice face on Tom Doland. But, what's Judi Bitner reacting to? Exams? Above, Emma Pill seems overcome with grief, Right? Nice shot of Mary Ellen Whitmore. Peek-a-Boo, Bubba Walker . . . And, Jeff Snider, we got you. At left, Sharon Roney faces the camera while above, Pam Waitkus just can't take the strain. Escape is just a book bag away.

The need to communicate reached new heights during the week. Most attempts brought success. Seniors captured the title for the spirit chain link competition for the fourth year putting their pennies on the line to show spirit. The trucks, the wood, hammers, nails and paint were transformed by magic into scenes from Broadway. Seniors again topped the competition with Juniors coming in second. In the club division, French Club took first place and Spanish Club walked away with second. On the business end of Homecoming, the Skyhawks overpowered Hugenot 14-0. Youngsters Make History

Fantastic weather greeted players, cheerleaders, and fans for the ninth annual Powder Puff game sponsored by TALON. The Junior-Senior team was ready. Coach Balint and assistants had worked hard and well before spring break. But on the other side of the field Matt Lipscomb and assistants had stayed home to practice during Spring break. The Freshman-Sophomore team was ready to kick up the turf and change history! Everyone expected an upperclass romp but Sophomore quarterback, Heather Brand sent a perfect pass into the waiting hands of Mary Henshaw for a TD and a 6-0 score which would be the winning margin. Even if the players couldn't pull it together, the Varsity cheerleaders were great, wild-absurd.

Tug of War

Pull, Plop . . . Psyche

"The annual Tug of War is about to commence, please excuse the students participating, with tickets to the football stadium," announced Mr. Jones. Students piled out of school to get front row seats for the tug. After the loser pulls, it was narrowed down to the Seniors and Juniors. "O.K. Seniors, you have two minutes to remove ten people from the rope, said Julian Porter. The extra people for the Senior class were not even needed, Seniors pulled to a victory. Poor Junior class, Talon sees the consolation prize you won last year, free body building lessons at Nautilus, didn't help that much. Goodluck next year.

Take the Academic Challenge

'Gosh, this is Hard!' 'How long do we have to . . . ?' 'How can I get all this homework done before I go to work?' 'Oh, not another test for Thursday.' 'Maybe college is not for me.' 'You got a 95, how?' 'Oh, he's a brain, it's easy for him!'

Faced with academic challenges, Skyhawks find two ways of dealing. One way, the easier one, is to find excuses not to do the work. Popular excuses include: no one else did it . . . the teacher is unfair . . . he/she can't teach . . . no one else understands . . . he/she gives too much work! For some the poor grades come as a shock even though they choose not to do the work. The other way to cope with the challenge is to simply sit down and do the work. Chesterfield County's grading scale has been under study for being too tough. The people pictured on these two pages attest to the fact that excellence has rewards. Call it good study habits or just pretend that it is easier for them because they are BRAINS. Students enjoy recognition for their hard work. Induction into Junior and National Honor Society is one reward. At left, Battle of the Brain team members Chris McMillian, Greg Smiley, Tom Doran, Scott Hirsh, and David Gartrell look ready for action.

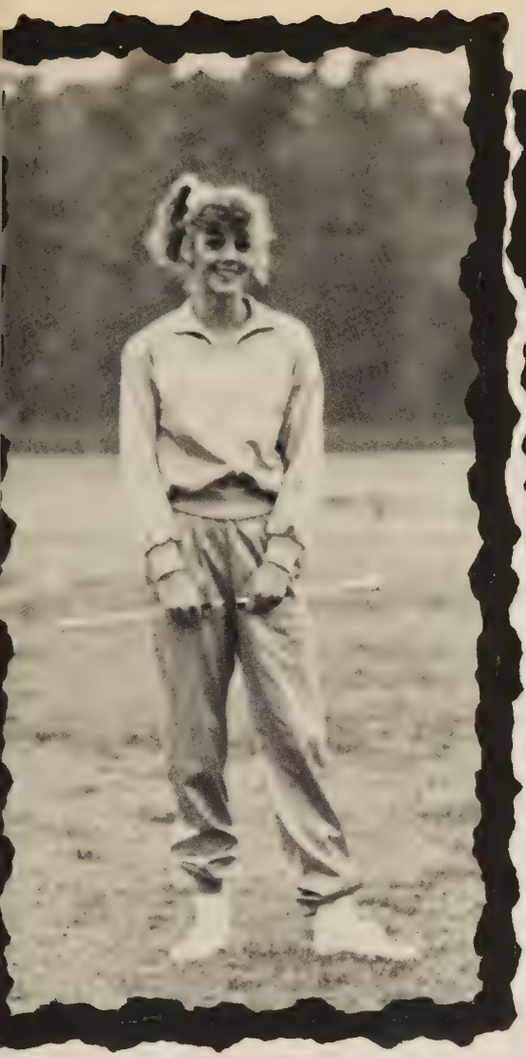
Artists, Musicians, Honored



Competition is the game for Bird artists and musicians. Lauren Spera took first place in the Chesterfield Art Show ard second in the Metropolitan "Families" Competition. Jeanne Shu and Frances Lee placed second and third and along with Lawren Spera were invited to a reception given by the governor. At left, Debi Akins, continues to win honors for twirling and the band member bring home top honors from competitions.

Key Into Language

'Good Morning', 'Buenos Dias', . . . what country are you visiting? It's still the USA but bilingual announcements in New York, Miami and other major cities make it more obvious than ever that second language proficiency is a sign of the times. With all the attention to language, these students will take the lead. Earning A's in German and Spanish, students with an overall 3.5 average in other classes become eligible for induction into language honor societies. German's, Delta Epsilon Phi membership doubled in its second year while Spanish's, El Siglo de Oro added seven new inductees.

Class officers and class members also prove invaluable in the success of the academic program at Bird.

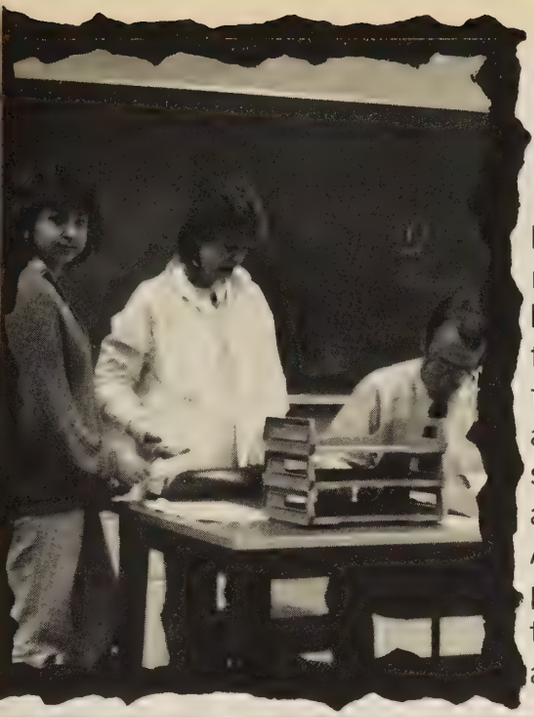
Societies Reward Excellence



Business, note taking, typing, ho hum, English papers, government exams, is it ever done? No, but Jazz Choir members find time to sing in relief during the day. Judy Greene's single and family living class members spend time making all the preparations for a mock wedding. Aubrey Lindsey serves as preacher and wedding gowns, tuxedoes, flowers, cake food are furnished by our community.

ESL student, Quyen Ngo shared the secret of paper folding with other language students. What a fascinating art.

Excellence when achieved is awarded by membership in the French Honor Society, or the newly chartered Latin Honor Society. The French requires an A average in French for three semesters with an overall B average. Latin's Societas Honoraria Latina requires students to be in the third year of study with A's and B's, superior academic performance and an interest in the study of the classics.
